Secondary School Report

Student name: _____ Social Security # _____
Last First Middle (complete)

Address: _____
Street City State Zip Code

VMA does not rank its students. This decision is in accord with our philosophy which encourages care for the individual, not necessarily in comparison with others. The decision also gives recognition to the fact that we have a selective admissions policy, small class size and a demanding marking system; therefore, class rank is not an accurate measure of individual achievement and could be misleading in determining a student's ability to complete college work successfully.

Number of students in senior class: 111

The percentage from the class of 2009 attending four-year colleges: 99%

The number of Advanced Placement courses offered: 16

Grading Scale: 4.0 (A) Passing Grade: 1.0 (D) College Recommending Grade: 2.5 (C+)

The student's overall grade point average _____ Weighted

We do not limit the number of AP courses a student can take; however, courses can conflict within the schedule.

We do not use Block Scheduling.

I have known the student for two years through many conversations, records, teacher comments and school activities.

The applicant's course selection, compared to those of her classmates is:

Most demanding Very Demanding Demanding Traditional College Prep

VMA does not use checklists as part of the college admissions criteria for rating our students. This decision, like that of not ranking our students, is in accord with our philosophy which encourages care for the individual, not necessarily in comparison with others.

Has the applicant ever been found responsible for a disciplinary violation at your school from 9th grade forward, whether related to academic misconduct or behavioral misconduct that resulted in the applicant's probation, suspension, removal, dismissal, or expulsion from your institution?

yes no

My overall impression of the student is:

_____ One of the top I have encountered _____ Excellent _____ Very Good _____ Average

Our school report, together with our recommendation, transcript, grade distribution and profile, aims to address the requirements of college admissions of high standard. Please be in touch with us if we can supply additional information.
