Letter from the Director

Dear Villa Maria Alumnae, Friends, and Family,

It may be a challenge to find me on the campus of Villa Maria these days. You might look in the gym, in a math classroom, or in the Activities Office and I will be nowhere to be found. I am pleased to tell you that my new home is in St. Joseph Hall in the Advancement Office. In the winter you will still be able to see me on the sidelines of the basketball games, but as of July 1, 2015, I am the new Director of Advancement. While I like to think that my role has always been about advancing the mission of Villa Maria, I now have the privilege of working with Ann Sinatra, Maggie Mallon, Diane Zwaan, Maureen Egan, and Sarah McGovern in promoting and supporting our school in new and exciting ways.

We all know how much Villa matters. It matters daily to present parents, students, and staff. But we have all been shaped by this school, and we are all tasked with making sure Villa Maria matters in the future as well. Can you alumnae imagine a world without Villa graduates? Take a second and think about what the world would miss without the Villa grads who are now doctors, teachers, CEOs, nurses, artists, scientists, writers, and phenomenal moms.

As the year progresses, I invite you to come and help us continue to make Villa matter. If you haven’t been back, check out the calendar on page 20 and make plans to come to an event and reconnect with classmates and teachers. Or stop by and see our new turf field (page 10), built with the support of the entire Villa community.

If you have kept in touch with us since your graduation — or your daughter’s — keep up the good work. Know that we are happy to see you and hear from you as much as possible. We welcome all philanthropic support of time, talent, and treasure. Please know how blessed we feel to have your support.

So, if you are looking for Kathy McCartney, stop by the Advancement Office. Villa matters to you, and you matter to us. I would love to sit and talk with all of you. I can’t tell you how happy I am to be joining the Advancement Team and how energized I feel about making sure that Villa continues to matter.

Sincerely,
Kathy McCartney
Director of Advancement

Villa Maria alumnae “Stormed the Shore” in full force on Saturday, August 8, 2015 at the home of Laura DelRaso Melvin ’73. This was the third year that Laura was gracious enough to host the complimentary Alumnae Association event at her home, and it was quite a success. A record attendance of over 50 graduates, past parents and friends of Villa Maria gathered in Avalon to enjoy cocktails, light snacks, and great conversation among new and old friends.

Graduates from the classes of 1946 through 2013 all made their way to the gathering. Making an appearance for the second year in a row were former classmates and boarding roommates Catherine “Kitty” Love ’46 and Jean Marie Dalton ’46. The youngest graduate to help celebrate the sisterhood was Claire Liva ’13.

A few wonderful VMA raffle prizes were given away, and thanks to the generosity of so many in attendance, the Sister Mary Kelly Scholarship program raised close to $2,000! We were elated to see so many people who took the time to stop by, celebrate and catch up with the Alumnae Association, and we truly hope to see you down the shore next year!
Capping Off a Career at Villa Maria Academy

By Rosemarie Coghlan

This fall marks the third year of our Senior Capstone program, a culminating learning activity that encourages critical thinking and research, promotes conversation and problem solving, and results in real life application of prior acquired knowledge. Each senior selects an area of interest and investigates her topic during the course of her final year at Villa Maria Academy. Students receive support in determining topics and forming “essential questions” about their chosen topics. Under the guidance of mentors, who include alumnae, past and present parents and teachers, and the Senior Capstone moderator, the students research, discuss and apply their knowledge.

Students in the Capstone program have grown in responsibility and in confidence as well as in self-awareness. Hannah Follman ’15 wrote, “I enjoyed getting up every day to watch the interworking of a veterinary hospital and I will forever cherish this experience.” Keeley Washel, a future occupational therapist, said “To my surprise, I ended up loving my time at the nursing home and realized I enjoyed working with that population, even more so than with the children; I am proud of how stepping out of the box led me to realize something about myself and discover an interest that I would have otherwise not known.”

Personally, I often think that I have received the biggest gift from this program: meeting dedicated alumnae and renewing acquaintances with so, so many former students. I credit three accomplished and generous Villa Marians for helping to make this program such a success. Early in September 2013, Mary Jane Raymond, ’78, a CFO in Pittsburgh; Sue Magargee, ’78, a pediatrician with a demanding practice; and Stephanie Deviney, ’90, a busy lawyer with a young son, eagerly embraced the Capstone initiative. They understand the importance of networking, and they knew that our alumnae were eager to connect to our current students. And so the Capstone program was launched.

The Class of 2015 benefitted from the expertise of more than 40 alumnae, representing five decades, who served as research mentors and/or provided career shadowing opportunities. Many of the alumnae have participated in the Capstone program both years, and have opened doors to hospitals and pharmacies; innercity schools and construction trailers; advertising brainstorming sessions and product testing laboratories; autopsy rooms and back stages of theatres. Our alumnae research mentors have guided our students via Skype and email from California and Nashville. Students have shadowed in Malvern and Paoli, but have also traveled to Baltimore, New...
York, Washington, D.C., California and Italy, connecting with former graduates and relatives.

One of Villa’s belief statements asserts, “Education empowers students to contribute to the community through service to others.” The VMA alumnae have certainly learned the meaning of the phrase “service to others.” By joining with our present students, they have not only modeled service, but have provided a glimpse of the future for our seniors. If you are interested in becoming a research mentor or can provide a career shadowing opportunity for one of the members of the Class of 2016, please contact Mrs. Rosemarie Coghlan at rcoghlan@vmahs.org.

Alumna’s SchoolCycle Program Distributes Bikes to Malawian Girls

Last December, in partnership with the United Nations Foundation’s Girl Up program, Lauren Bohn ’05 and colleague Zoe Fox launched SchoolCycle, an initiative to provide bikes for Malawian girls who often drop out of school because of prohibitively long walking distances. The team raised more than $100,000 to bring wheels to 550 girls. In September 2015, they began distributing bikes to excited students. Lauren had visited Villa Maria in January, and the school made a donation to the program. In thanks, Lauren sent the photo above, featuring a Malawi student with a Villa car magnet.

Girl Up plans to expand SchoolCycle, and will announce the next target country at the end of November 2015.

Alumnae and Faculty Participate in Papal Visit

Pope Francis came to Philadelphia for the World Meeting of Families in September, and Villa Marians of all stripes made the most of this local visit. Many members of the faculty and student body attended the Papal Mass and other events downtown, braving the crowds and transportation challenges. Some participated more directly, organizing, fundraising, singing and speaking.

Helen Alvaré Duggan ’78 (above center), a George Mason University Law School professor, was a keynote speaker at the World Meeting of Families in Philadelphia during the week of September 21, 2015. Her speech discussed “Creating the Future: The Fertility of Christian Love.” There were an estimated 12,000 people from around the world listening to Helen as her words were interpreted in French, Italian, Spanish, Vietnamese and American Sign Language simultaneously. Bernadette DelRaso Dougherty ’78 (left) and Peggy Wenke ’79 (right) had front row passes to see Helen speak.

Alumna Travels to Rome with World Meeting of Families Philadelphia Delegation

By Susie Devine Mita ’73

Archbishop Chaput had asked Eustace to consider helping with the World Meeting of Families fundraising. We both prayed about it and, of course, decided that this was an opportunity of great importance to Catholics and all people of faith here in Philadelphia. To host an event like this in Philadelphia was certainly a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for this city and our diocese. God has blessed us abundantly in every way, so whenever we are asked to do something with the potential to do good, we try our best to say yes.

I see Pope Francis as a strong but humble and gentle leader. I think he stands faithfully to the dogma of our Catholic faith without judgement of anyone, and understands wholeheartedly how we all struggle in our lives. Sometimes we may make decisions that we see as the only option and may even regret someday. In short, we are all human. Pope Francis gets that!

As a Catholic in the Philadelphia community, I am excited that he has designated this coming year as the Year of Mercy. I love his words, “Beware of getting comfortable. When we are comfortable, it’s easy to forget other people.” Perhaps as a result of this trip, our community will be more willing to look around, assist more readily those who need our help in our community, and respond to others with more kindness, compassion and mercy to all.

When I anxiously met the Pope for the first time, I immediately was touched by his gaze. He looked right into my eyes and held my hand as I attempted to greet him in Spanish. (Shout out to Sister Patrick, my Villa Spanish teacher). He smiled and all my jitters melted away. I felt his mercy and kindness. It was only a minute or two, but as Eustace and I walked away, I was touched by his one request: “Please pray for me.” It was then that I thought about the enormous responsibilities he has as a premier world leader today. Every word must be carefully chosen to reflect the faith and needs of our church, and yet the good of all mankind. What a great job Pope Francis has done thus far!

Of course, I have tried to pray for him almost every day since.
Patty Baldi Holloway ’73 Reflects on Trip to Rome

Patty Baldi Holloway ’73 and her husband Gary were invited to serve on the Philadelphia Delegation by Archbishop Chaput. They traveled to Rome and were received by the Pope in Vatican City.

Interviewed about their trip over the summer, Patty reflected on how it felt to play a part bringing Pope Francis to Philadelphia and the World Meeting of Families. “It is exhilarating to be a part of this historic event,” she said. “Seeing various walks of faith, numerous socioeconomic backgrounds and diverse groups join together for the World Meeting of Families, combined with a Papal visit, brings the promise of unity, peace and love. Powerful!”

“Pope Francis brings a spirit of forgiveness, acceptance and revival. We saw this first-hand when we visited him at the Vatican in June. The anticipation of his arrival created an excitement that enveloped the crowd. As he entered in the ‘Popemobile,’ everyone roared in unison, creating a feeling of oneness. This is something we will never forget! To be able to have touched his hand was so very special. A calmness was felt immediately and remains with us today. We were excited that so many more Philadelphians would be able to experience his Holiness’ presence! We looked forward to welcoming him to our City of Brotherly Love.”

Singers Chosen for Papal Choirs

Villa Maria faculty, alumnae and students sang for Pope Francis at Masses in the Basilica and on the Benjamin Franklin Parkway.

Faculty member Sister Danielle Therese, IHM, said, “As we entered this awesome journey and experience called the Papal Choir, we were blessed to have been chosen out of 500 who auditioned. This time of preparation was filled with many hours of practice, but oh, how worth it! Those hours led to music beyond words, created by people from all over the diocese. What an opportunity of a lifetime.”

Villa Maria opens the Maurene Polley Field

By Kathy McCartney

What a fabulous day! On the sun-drenched morning of Thursday, October 8, the Villa community, faculty, students, and benefactors gathered to celebrate the long-awaited opening of the Maurene Polley Field. Thanks to the efforts and support of so many people this field of dreams became a reality.

The day started with a procession of the student body to mid-field, where they joined the administration and field donors. As a community we did what we do best … we prayed. Father Flynn and team captains led a field blessing service in which we thanked all those responsible for the construction, and prayed for the success and safety of all those who will use the field. We thanked God for the continued support of all our generous benefactors, without whom none of this would be possible.

Embedded in the ceremony was the playing of “Green Tree,” an original composition by our own Anna Wilson ’90, penned and performed just for this project.

The field’s namesake, Maurene Polley, thanked everyone and expressed how humbled she feels to have the field named in her honor. She wished all the VMA athletes luck and hoped that many championships would be celebrated there.

Thanks to the hustle of the construction crews and our facilities staff, the first game was played the next day. The field hockey team took the field for the first time against Merion Mercy. Rain ended the game early with a 3-2 Villa win, but nothing could dampen Villa Maria’s excitement for the new Maurene Polley Field. Generations of Villa soccer, lacrosse and field hockey players will seek to play up to the high standards set by the woman for whom the field is proudly named.

Janet McAleese Coady ’75, Ron and Ryan Polley, Maurene Moore Polley ’64, Sr. Regina Ryan, Maryanne Parsons, and members of the soccer and field hockey teams ceremonially cut the ribbon on the new field.
Sally McClatchy Jeffries ’73

Sally wanted the current Villa girls to understand Maurene Polley’s history with and importance to Villa Maria — in short, the reasons why the new facility is called The Maurene Polley Field. Her speech is reprinted here.

Good morning,

In 1970, as a sophomore, I entered Villa Maria Academy High School. Never would I have ever believed that at that time I was about to meet someone who would change my life forever. Our honored guest, Maurene Polley, was my teacher, my coach, my mentor, and went on to become a lifelong friend. It is my distinct privilege to be here this morning and share with the students, especially the freshmen, a little bit about Mrs. Polley.

Mrs. Polley is a 1964 graduate of Villa Maria. After graduation she played four standout years of field hockey at West Chester University. When she graduated from West Chester, Mrs. Polley came back to Villa, where her legendary story began. She was hired to represent the entire Health, PE, and Athletic Department in a solo role. She taught every class, coached every sport — without assistants — and worked feverishly as Athletic Director to grow this program. And grow it she did! Under her direction, and 46 wonderful years of hard work and determination, we have grown from 3 to 13 varsity and JV sports; and employ no less than 30 coaches and assistants. We have added PIAA district and state affiliations on top of our already competitive Academy League Conference.

In addition to Coach of the Year honors (countless times) from both the Inquirer and Daily Local News, she was also inducted into the National Field Hockey Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2011. Even more recently she was recognized by West Chester University as they inducted her into the Sturzebecker Hall of Fame. That award is given to a graduate who has brought the college immense pride as both a teacher and coach in the education community. In the next few months Mrs. Polley will add one more induction honor, joining the Chester County Hall of Fame. Lastly, in 2014, I got to personally introduce Mrs. Polley as the unanimous choice for the Theresa Maxis Award, given by the Villa Maria Alumnae Association at their annual luncheon. This award spoke to the person Mrs. Polley is, on and off the field, and how grateful the entire Villa Maria community is for her dedication, service, and love of all things Villa.

But today, Villa Maria is gathering to give Mrs. Polley her own special dedication. Under the direction of Miss Kathy McCartney, her fabulous advancement team, as well as an extremely dedicated Turf It committee, we are finally here.

Mrs. Polley, on behalf of the field hockey, soccer, and lacrosse players who stand before you, we gather to say, “Thank you.” From all the student athletes who have come before them, “Thank you.” For teaching us how to be “winners” as athletes, students, and as human beings, “Thank you.”

Finally, for being the inspiration for this newest addition to the VMA campus, we thank you in the most permanent of ways! Your name will always be a part of us and your legacy will carry on in our hearts for years and years to come. You deserve no less.

It is with great gratitude and pride that I introduce to you the person and the reason we are all standing on this brand new turf field, Mrs. Maurene Polley!
Field construction took place over the summer, and good weather helped keep the project on track. The first game was played on October 9 against Merion Mercy.

A week after the 2014-15 school year ended, nineteen rising seniors and three chaperones boarded a plane to New Orleans for a service trip. Upon arrival at Louis Armstrong International Airport, the trip participants were greeted by their guides from Rustic Pathways. At the base house, everyone was treated to a local meal of Creole jambalaya before taking a walking tour of the famous French Quarter.

The next day, at a visit to the Hurricane Katrina exhibit at the State of Louisiana Museum, students learned how the costliest natural disaster in U.S. history impacted and continues to impact the New Orleans region. The next day the trip participants began working with the St. Bernard Project (SBP), a non-profit organization that was created in 2006 to address the tremendous housing needs after Hurricane Katrina. Ten years after Hurricane Katrina hit New Orleans, it is estimated that approximately 6,000 families own homes that they cannot afford to rebuild.

The students and chaperones helped to renovate two homes during their stay. The group painted walls, caulked tile, cut wood for baseboards and window trim, and lay floorboards. The Villa girls were remarkable on the trip. They were performing home construction work in very high temperatures, and they never complained. At night they joined in group discussions, wrote in their journals, and posted their reflections on the group Facebook page. Their enthusiasm was contagious.

During lunch breaks, the girls befriended and played games with children in the neighborhood. During a group discussion after a long day of service, senior Mariana Hoehl remarked, “We came to New Orleans to build houses for the community, but the community gave us a home.”

After finishing the home construction, the students participated in a service project at Second Harvest Food Bank, where they prepared and packed meals for children and the elderly. The trip participants collectively completed over 500 hours of service during their stay in New Orleans.

Students were able to enjoy cultural activities in between service projects. They visited the levees that were rebuilt after the original ones were breached in 2005 during Hurricane Katrina, and learned about the efforts to save the wetlands of the region. They met some alligators during an eco-airboat tour of a swamp, learned about Cajun culture, grooved to jazz at historic Preservation Hall, and visited a restored Creole sugarcane plantation, learning about the lives of both slave owners and slaves.

The trip ended with a visit to a very old tree known as the Tree of Life of New Orleans. The girls encircled the tree and spontaneously recited The Lady of the Highway prayer and sang the Alma Mater. Villa Maria is planning another service trip to New Orleans in June of 2016 for the Class of 2017.
The Chain of Sisterhood Links Two Alumnae Across 20 Years

By Kathy McCartney

In today’s society, we throw words like family and sisterhood around in a very cavalier way. Athletic teams are referred to as family. The CEOs of giant companies call their employees family members. Well, last week I got a glimpse into a true sisterhood, the Villa Maria sisterhood. I had the extreme pleasure of having lunch with Linda DeMeglio ’65 and her friend Rosemarie Wells ’45.

The lunch began with a champagne toast to the great school that brought us together, Villa Maria Academy. The ladies then regaled me with tales of the good old days. The story of how they met was fascinating. In 2001, both women were traveling and had a layover at Heathrow Airport in England. Strangers sitting next to each other in the terminal, they struck up a conversation. The two learned they were both from the Philadelphia area and sure enough they realized they had both graduated from “the dearest spot on Earth,” Villa Maria. Since that day they have been great friends.

Rosemarie convinced Linda to attend her 45th class reunion at the annual Alumnae Luncheon and Mass, and they both have attended reunions ever since. Again this spring, Rosemarie called Linda to see if she was going to the alumnae luncheon. Although Linda was more than happy to give Rosemarie a ride to the luncheon, this year Rosemarie had to find a different ride home because the wild 50th reunion Class of 1965 continued the celebration long after everyone else went home.

We spent two hours looking at pictures of classmates from 1945 and 1965. We talked about how artificial daisies have replaced the real flowers once used during their days as students for the treasured Daisy Chain ceremony. We spent a lot of time talking about life as a boarder at VMA and how those young women shared a very special and sacred bond. Sure, all the best loved traditions of Villa Maria have been tweaked over the years, but the essence of each has remained unchanged.

Both Linda and Rosemarie were effusive in their praise of the education they received. Their time here was tough but in the end they realized how their Villa education served them well. Linda spent many years as the managing editor of The Daily Times and Rosemarie worked at the University of Pennsylvania. Both women have spent their retirement years traveling the globe. Rosemarie has visited Italy over 45 times!

Sister Carmen Rosa was one teacher that both Linda and Rosemarie remembered fondly. Sister’s quote, “The chain of friendship stretches far, linking days that were with days that are,” really sums up the friendship these two fantastic Villa grads share. While many may use the term sisterhood lightly, the Villa Maria sisterhood can never be underestimated, as demonstrated by two travelers separated by 20 years in age but united by one singular achievement … graduating from Villa Maria Academy.

Katie ‘08, Christina ‘10 and Olivia ‘13 Fow

Katie ‘08 and Christina ‘10 Fow took some time off to visit sister, Olivia ‘13, who is studying for a semester (June to November) at Lincoln University outside of Christchurch, New Zealand. She is a Landscape Architecture major and junior at University of Rhode Island. Among the many adventures the sisters booked were a stop in Bora Bora, kayaking in the Milford Sound and zip lining in Queenstown, New Zealand.
Alyson McGonigle ’10

Alyson McGonigle ’10 was nominated for the 2015 NCAA Woman of The Year award as a Track & Field athlete for The University of Richmond. This award honors graduating female college athletes who distinguished themselves throughout their careers in academics, athletics, service and leadership. In her career for the Spiders, Alyson earned six Atlantic 10 Championships. Her passion for service was evident in her participation with adults with Down Syndrome and Little Sisters of the Poor Home near campus.

Emily Cable ’11

Emily Cable ’11, traveled with Yale’s Track and Field team to Ireland and the UK, where Yale and Harvard created a single team to face off against the combined forces of Oxford and Cambridge in a storied competition, first held in 1894. The Yale-Harvard squad has not lost the quadrennial meet since 1993. Emily finished first in the 400m race, and second in the 200m.

Maggie Wisniewski ’11

Maggie Wisniewski ’11 is studying at Northeastern University with the intention of being Pre-Med. In May, she shadowed a cardiologist for the summer in Cape Town, South Africa. She was able to visit her sister, Catherine ’09, who has been stationed in Africa as a member of the Peace Corps.

Lauren del Valle ’12

Lauren del Valle ’12 is a senior at Hofstra University whose fellowship at Carnegie-Knight News21, a national, multi-university reporting initiative headquartered in Arizona University’s Walter Cronkite School of Journalism, led her to an opportunity to travel to Hawaii as part of a journalism investigative team. The four-year Division 1 field hockey player selflessly turned down the chance to go since the team needed another video journalist, which was not in Lauren’s skill set.

As a student-athlete whose coaches say she sets the example for team members to follow and look up to (she is a three-time NFHCA National Academic Squad selection, CAA Commissioner’s Academic Award recipient and Athletic Academic Honor Roll member), Lauren is used to working with different personalities in a highly competitive environment, which helped her make the decision for the greater good of the news team. Lauren was one of only 27 students selected to the News21 team, which has produced major investigative pieces. Lauren has also worked as an assistant news editor at the Chronicle and as a contributing editor for Long Island Report.

Upon graduation in May, Lauren is hoping for an internship with a major media company in NYC, and would like to pursue a career in data-driven investigative journalism.

Lauren Murphy and Katie Tadley

Lauren Murphy and Katie Tadley, classmates from the Class of 2012, bumped into each other this summer. Both are nursing majors, with Lauren attending the University of Pennsylvania and Katie attending Villanova University. This summer, they both worked in the Nurse Externship Program at Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP). Lauren worked in the Intensive Care Unit and Katie worked on the Oncology floor. Both women will continue to work at CHOP during their senior year.

We Remember
Sister Rose Anthony Spingler, IHM

Sister Rose Anthony returned to Villa Maria just last fall as a Guidance Counselor, after having been a chemistry teacher at Villa from 1973-1978. Her new role allowed her to work with individual students from various years and to share her knowledge and insight with many young women. None were more excited than the alumnae who had shared the classroom and so many wonderful years with Sister Rose Anthony. Her contagious smile, easy laugh, competitive spirit and genuine love for others was unmatched. Sister was called suddenly to the Lord on September 19, 2015. She started her year off at Villa with an infectious energy that will be greatly missed. However, our community believes that Sr. Rose Anthony came back to the “dearest spot on earth” to share her gifts and talents with the people and place she held so close to her heart. Rest in peace, Sister Rose.

UPCOMING REUNIONS
The Class of 1966 is planning their 50th Reunion. Contact Lee Zaions Caracci ’66 at lzc1002@verizon.net for more information.
Report of Philanthropy

Recognizing those who supported Villa Maria Academy from July 1, 2014 through June 30, 2015
Looking back at giving in 2014-15

We celebrate the generous spirit of our volunteers and donors who made 2014-15 a year of firsts at Villa Maria Academy. We more than doubled our Villa Fund donations, raising over $400,000 to support immediate goals of the Strategic Plan. Some of the new initiatives include:

- A school van (above) is in operation, serving students whose home school districts do not provide transportation to VMA.
- A master site plan that will provide a detailed roadmap for campus renovations is in the final stages of completion and approval.
- A learning specialist has been added to the faculty to provide essential services to all learners.
- The cafeteria was enhanced with new menu offerings and signage, including the installation of presentation technology.
- A network engineer has been added to support over 30 systems. He assisted with a wifi network update and implemented Airplay in the classrooms over the summer, and is implementing Google Apps for Education over the next several months.

Thank you for helping to sustain this exceptional environment and ensure that Villa Maria Academy is the best place it can be for our students.

We make every effort to accurately report on gifts and donations; however, mistakes can sometimes occur. We apologize in advance for any errors or omissions and value your input. Should you have a question about the Annual Report, please contact the Advancement Office at 610-644-2551 x1031, or asinatra@vmahs.org.
Your commitment to the Villa Fund generates possibility for a thriving faculty and student body. With your gift, you join more than 900 alumnae, parents, faculty & staff, grandparents, former teachers, and parents of alumnae who contribute to annual giving each year, helping Villa Maria Academy maintain its rich traditions of innovative teaching and learning, rooted in the IHM Charism of Love, Creative Hope and Fidelity.

We feel blessed to have the trust and support of those donors and volunteers who have made the choice to honor our past and to invest in our future.

Current Parents

We are grateful to our current parents who actively support our mission here at Villa Maria Academy. In addition to fulfilling their tuition obligation, many volunteer for activities and events. We appreciate their constant support and thank them for their greatest gift to Villa Maria — their daughters.

Here’s how the Parent Classes participated in Villa Fund donations in FY 2014-15.

- Class of 2015 (Senior Class Parents) 48 donors – 48%
- Class of 2016 (Junior Class Parents) 54 donors – 55%
- Class of 2017 (Sophomore Class Parents) 57 donors – 55%
- Class of 2018 (Freshman Class Parents) 66 donors – 62%
- Overall: 225 families donated to the Villa Fund – 56% of total parents. When you include donations to the Endowment, Special Events (FEST & Golf), and donations to the Maureen Polley Field, parent support jumps to 66% of all Villa families!

Thank you!
“Villa has given me the opportunity to meet an array of new people through a combination of academics and extracurricular activities. While junior year presents a challenging course load, both my teachers and my peers are more than willing to lend me a hand. Most importantly, Villa is preparing me for college and, ultimately, my future. The friendly, positive atmosphere helps to promote higher level learning and allows students to participate in the Villa community.”

#GivingTuesday™

Thanksgiving...Black Friday...Cyber Monday...

We have a day for giving thanks, followed by a few days to get a head start on Christmas shopping. Now, we have #GivingTuesday, a global day dedicated to giving back. Thousands of charities participate in Giving Tuesday and we hope you’ll join in with a gift or pledge to Villa Maria Academy on Tuesday, December 1, 2015. Your donation that day will be matched by a generous Villa donor so please join the Villa community for one common purpose: to celebrate generosity and to give back.
Alumnae Gifts

A gift from a graduate speaks to Villa Maria Academy’s future. It portrays the preparation she received and her desire to make sure our current students have an even better experience. We are grateful for the commitment the alumnae have to Villa and invite all graduates to consider a future investment to assist in creating an environment of excellence in education.

Once a Hurricane, always a Hurricane, but what does it mean to be a Hurricane after you’ve graduated? Between college, graduate school, travel, careers, marriage and kids, life after VMA can be busy. And the further you move away from your high school years, the easier it is to forget how much impact Villa has had on you.

It’s never too soon to think about giving back. We salute those young alumnae who are giving back so that current and future Hurricanes can enjoy the enriching Villa Maria Academy education.

It is our pleasure to welcome these alumnae into the Daisy Chain Society to recognize qualifying gifts within 14 years of graduation.

$17,027
Total giving from this group of Daisy Chain Society members.
Loyal donors are the cornerstone of Villa Maria’s success, providing the means by which we carry out our mission. A dedicated core of parents, alumnae, grandparents, faculty, staff and friends generously support Villa Maria each and every year.

The Carol and Ring Society recognizes donors for consistency and loyalty in giving to Villa Maria Academy High School throughout consecutive years. Inspired by one of our most treasured traditions and the sense of community it creates, the Carol & Ring Society recognizes everyone who makes annual gifts to Villa Maria for five or more consecutive years. Gifts can be in any amount and can be designated to any area of the school. Consecutive years of giving are counted by fiscal year, which runs from July 1 to June 30.

We are profoundly grateful for the following donors for their steadfast support over five or more consecutive years. An asterisk indicates ten or more consecutive years!

The Class of 1967 spearheaded an effort to honor their classmate and friend, Pam Petrella Winning. Pam was known as the “class choreographer” for her vivacious leadership of the cheerleading squad and her ability to include dance in school skits, classroom presentations and musicals. Their fundraising helped to renovate a storage space for use as a multi-purpose fitness room and dance studio. We are grateful to Anita Baldi Gabler and all of Pam’s friends for leading the effort and to these donors whose gifts arrived by June 30, 2015. Fundraising continues and donations are gratefully accepted.

Gerard and Marie Hageney GP '08 '14 Endowed Scholarship Fund
Impressed with the depth and spirit of their granddaughters’ Villa Maria education, Jerry and Marie Hageney made a most generous bequest to the school in 2015. A portion of the planned gift endowed a scholarship fund in their names. The award goes to girls who display a commitment to serving others in school, in the community, and at home. Preference is given to families who have multiple students attending Catholic schools.

In Memory of Sister Mary Kelly, IHM '46
Sister Mary Kelly was a student, teacher, and eventually the principal of Villa Maria Academy. She was a beloved figure in the Villa community who was known for her kindness, leadership and vision. The Alumnae Association began a scholarship that is awarded to a freshman and renewed every year throughout the student's four years of high school. Your support of Alumnae events will benefit Villa students every year.

In Memory of Sister Patricia Spingler, IHM
As the Vice Principal of Advancement, Sister Pat was a visionary who understood the importance of an endowment for long-term success of a school. After her passing in 2013, the Advisory Board approved the designation of the Sr. Patricia Spingler, IHM Endowed Scholarship to provide much needed assistance to students for decades to come. In Memory of Sister Patricia Spingler, IHM
As the Vice Principal of Advancement, Sister Pat was a visionary who understood the importance of an endowment for long-term success of a school. After her passing in 2013, the Advisory Board approved the designation of the Sr. Patricia Spingler, IHM Endowed Scholarship to provide much needed assistance to students for decades to come. Thank you to these generous donors for continuing Sr. Pat's vision.

Villa Maria Academy has been blessed by the foresight and gift planning done by Gerard and Marie Hageney, grandparents of graduates Meghan O’Keefe ’08 and Erin O’Keefe ’14. While planning a gift from their estate, Jerry and Marie appreciated the Villa spirit and selected the school to perpetuate their legacy. They felt very good about directing their hard-earned savings to a place that had so positively influenced their granddaughters because they valued the Villa commitment to hard work, academic excellence, and service to others.

Growing up in apartment buildings in Queens, NY, Jerry and Marie didn’t have much but they were smart and had the desire to work hard to get ahead. They lived a great life and loved each other and their family very much. All three children attended Villanova University and settled in Philadelphia after graduating college. Jerry and Marie moved to the area to be closer to family and be a part of the daily lives of their grandchildren. They attended several school functions over the years, enjoying Villa traditions from tailgates to graduations. They admired how Meghan and Erin were thriving at Villa Maria Academy.

Their bequest is the ultimate expression of confidence in the mission and core values of Villa Maria Academy, and is a testament to their commitment to the education of girls. The generous gift has been distributed to many areas of school life including Strategic Plan initiatives, the endowment, the Turf Field project, classroom renovations, and the Villa Fund.

To recognize that planned gifts play an important role in the support of Villa Maria Academy, we have established the Green Tree Society to honor those who have continued a tradition of remembrance to benefit the school. Just as a young tree is planted to provide shade and nourishment for decades to come, your bequest will provide far-reaching support for future generations of Villa Maria students.

If you would like to know more about the creative ways to support the school in which Villa Maria, you and your loved ones all benefit at the same time, please contact the Advancement Office. We can guide you through the options where you may create win-win solutions for you and Villa Maria. If you have already made provisions for Villa Maria in your estate planning, please let us know so we can properly welcome you as a member of the Green Tree Society!

Help us grow the Green Tree Society! Join these donors like you who have remembered Villa Maria Academy in their estate plans.
